No. 1 in Fiji for Families!

-Starts -

FIJI January 2010 - Trip Advisor Travellers have voted! Malolo is number one in Fiji for families and number two in the entire South Pacific for 2010. Trip Advisor's Travellers' Choice Awards are the only honours awarded by the world's largest travel community, based on the trusted opinions of millions of real travellers.

Malolo has also just undergone a F$2M refurbishment which has now firmly placed it at the top of the quality 4-star level accommodation in Fiji's Mamanuca Islands.

Fijian owner of Malolo, Tony Whitton says, "My family has owned Malolo for over 10 years and during that time we have improved our offering by building a new spa, kids club and entertainment lounge. However, this latest investment and renovation surpasses anything we have done previously and highlights our commitment to continue to offer quality and excellence and of course, that special Fijian experience unique to Malolo. Being a family-run company, we know that unique feeling of family does filter through to the guest experience and that is a take-away from a holiday you can't put a price on.

Mr Whitton continues, "Receiving this award from those who have actually experienced Malolo is very humbling and a wonderful accolade for our staff who ensure our guests leave feeling like they have indeed become our newest family members."

Part of Malolo's appeal is its ability to cater really well for families with a separate pool, innovate kids club program, entertainment lounge and dining area for 13yrs and above, and a host of activities suitable for all ages.

Malolo is located just 25km/16m west of Nadi International Airport and is accessible by seaplane, private speedboat or three times daily fast catamaran. An intimate, rustic resort, it comprises just 9 acres of the 2000 acre island, and consists of only 47 bures - all with ocean views, three dining venues, spa, entertainment lounge for 13 years and over, two pools - including one for families and one for adults only, and a myriad of activities including, snorkelling, diving, island hopping and dolphin spotting to name a few. Prices from only F$1795 for a family of four up to 31 March 2010.
